

Apprenticeship Ambassador Network

What is an Apprenticeship Ambassador?

The Apprenticeship Ambassadors are all employers who have recruited apprentices as part of their workforce.

They are passionate about their experiences with apprentices and are keen to promote the apprenticeship route to other employers and potential new apprentices.

What does an Apprenticeship Ambassador do?

- ✓ Proactively champions apprenticeships in their own networks including customers, supply chains, and trade & sector bodies
- ✓ Acts as a role model to promote and encourage the breadth and diversity within apprenticeships
- ✓ Shares experiences, knowledge and skills and talks positively and honestly about the impact an apprentice has made within your organisation – this may be through case studies, meetings and events and via social media
- ✓ Endorses apprenticeships at job fairs, skills shows and events and influences other employers about the benefits of apprenticeships
- ✓ Ambassadors volunteer to undertake their role for approximately 1 day every 3 months.

What support will an Apprenticeship Ambassador receive?

- Be part of a network of trusted and influential Apprenticeship Ambassadors locally as part of the wider region – expanding your own networking and peer to peer support opportunities
- Invited to an annual regional conference to share good practice, network across the regional ambassador group and hear topical speakers including Ministers.
- Promotion via our social media channels to support key messages and campaigns, e.g. National Apprenticeship Week; and showcasing your role, as both a significant employer and Apprenticeship Ambassador

Become an Apprenticeship Ambassador

The apprenticeship reforms have encouraged lots of new and exciting businesses and sectors to be more actively involved in apprenticeships. We want our refreshed ambassador network to reflect this dynamic.

If you are interested in joining as an Ambassador, please contact: AAN.CHAIR@education.gov.uk

Co-chairs of the Yorkshire and Humber AAN say:

Katie Rankin (Early Careers & Future Talent Specialist – Jet2)

“Having completed an Apprenticeship myself, I have seen first-hand the benefits of learning on the job and putting the knowledge into practice. I believe Apprenticeships are a fantastic way to develop new and existing colleagues which is why I’m proud to be an Apprenticeship Ambassador”

Jill Coyle (Apprenticeship Manager – Nestle UK&I)

“I am a passionate advocate of Apprenticeships as the most intuitive way to learn new skills and deliver bottom line benefits to business. Supporting enthusiastic and engaged individuals of all ages to achieve their personal and professional potential is just one of the reasons why I am proud to be an Apprentice Ambassador.”
